you are the greatest, you are the greatest. But then when they put together these operations that show respect, the legislators are never invited, never. In fact, I was the strongest opponent of what Mike Harper was trying to do, but I am the only one he mentioned in an article saying I would do well in his company because I have courage and principles. He mentioned me by name. And I am not looking for anything from him or anybody else. I am looking for some respect for the Legislature, and this kind of stuff does not give it. Support Senator Hall and strike a blow, my...

PRESIDENT ROBAK: Time.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: ...friends, for the uplift of the Legislature.

PRESIDENT ROBAK: Thank you, Senator Chambers. Senator Withem.

SPEAKER WITHEM: Madam President, members of the body, I am going to talk, use my opportunity here to talk a little bit about process. I will be opposing the Hall amendment as I had indicated, although Senator Hall raises very valid issues that need to be...need to be addressed with. Point one, I want to correct the...some information that Senator Hall probably had no way of knowing was incorrect, but just to make sure everybody knows, we did not get into the finals without these bills taken under consideration. The proposal that went into Micron indicated that we anticipated that we would pass legislation in this regard. For Micron to consider our offer seriously, there is a need for this legislation to pass. I think we said that Day 1 on these bills. I think we said that this morning. We are saying it again now. Secondly, there have been, and like Senator Lindsay pointed out, people are standing up talking about how these bills are being ramrodded through just like 775, people are held hostage, we have now debated this bill for more than seven hours on General File. The "Micronesia" amendment, we did not adopt that, we did vote that down. We did, however, adopt two other amendments that Senator Chambers adopted. Senator Wesely offered an amendment talking about a sunset, and I thought we had an agreement, although I see some amendments up there now that make me wonder whether we had the agreement or not, but I thought we had the agreement to talk about a sunset and deal with that when we got to Select File. I am perfectly willing to talk about a sunset, I think it makes good policy sense. Senator Coordsen's amendment was not adopted but we
