SENATOR CROSBY: Time.

SPEAKER WITHEM: ...if there's some rationale for it beyond simply making it clear that these benefits don't go on in perpetuity.

SENATOR HALL: Isn't it true, though, that at least one of the...

SENATOR CROSBY: Time. Senator Withem, your light is next.

SPEAKER WITHEM: Yeah, I really just put on my light to...to kind of give an explanation to the...the last time that I was asked to respond to questions. And it just...Senator...Senator Chambers, I meant by no means more testy than usual today, I don't think, and I thought I'd responded to your questions as well as I could and didn't see any reason to prolong. I'm certainly happy to, if you have questions or anybody else has questions about this bill, to...to attempt to explain them. And I can't always do a terribly good job of that. And, Senator Hall, you wanted to con...

SENATOR CROSBY: Senator Hall, Senator Withem is...

SPEAKER WITHEM: Yeah, Senator Hall, you were cut off on your time, I really didn't have much further use of my time, other than to indicate that I'm not refusing to respond to questions back to Senator Chambers' earlier comment. If there are questions about these particular bills, I'll be happy to try to respond to those. You were in the process of trying to continue, so let me give the rest of my time to you.

SENATOR HALL: Thank you.

SENATOR CROSBY: Mr. Clerk.

CLERK: Madam President, Senator Hall would move to amend the bill. (Read Hall amendment, FA61, as it appears on page 851 of the Legislative Journal.)

SENATOR CROSBY: Senator Hall, to open on your amendment.

SENATOR HALL: Thank you, Madam President, members. The
