

made you aware of the fact that Idaho has been eliminated from consideration and now it is just Omaha and Oklahoma City?

SPEAKER WITHEM: Oh, sure. No, no, excuse me, it is not...you are confusing Idaho and Utah. Utah, Idaho was eliminated when they announced their three finalists. Utah, Nebraska, and Oklahoma are still involved.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Utah, right.

SPEAKER WITHEM: And it is my understanding that there was some speculation that they might have reconsidered and stayed in Idaho. They will not go to Idaho was, I believe, the information that Senator Elmer gave. They will not reconsider that decision. Utah, and Nebraska, and Oklahoma are the three that will still be under consideration.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Well, Utah...maybe I misspoke and said Idaho, but Utah is the one that I am speaking about. I think you knew that Utah was the one I was always...

SPEAKER WITHEM: I...well, Senator Elmer, just said...maybe we ought to ask him to clarify this. He just told me that they were not going to reconsider and go to Idaho, was the statement I...conversation I just had with Senator Elmer.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Well, I knew that. I was aware of that. I thought...Senator Elmer, did you tell me Utah was the one or Idaho?

PRESIDENT ROBAK: Senator Elmer.

SENATOR ELMER: Senator Chambers, the Boise newspaper today said that they were not going to reconsider locating in Idaho.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Oh, okay, right. We knew that Utah, okay, so what I am saying around the corner and down the street, Utah was the state that I meant. That is the one that I meant.

SPEAKER WITHEM: And it is still under consideration.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Right. Thank you. And I think they are going to get it. Now I won a little wager from Senator Hall to the amount of $50, so if I lose the 50 that I put up, I am not really losing anything. Who else believes enough in their
