

position that they will accept the same odds that I gave to Senator Engel, and you can give it to your charity or whatever you want to. Senator Engel said his favorite charity or mine, I'm my favorite charity so I can't lose on that one. Senator Lindsay, I'd like to ask you a question because you've been supporting these bills very strenuously. How strongly do you believe that Micron is going to come to Nebraska for the purpose of setting up their operation?

PRESIDENT ROBAK: Senator Lindsay.

SENATOR LINDSAY: How strongly do I feel?

SENATOR CHAMBERS: On a scale of one to ten, ten being you really...you expect them to come here.

SENATOR LINDSAY: Ten is certainty and one is no.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Where you are now, yes.

SENATOR LINDSAY: Maybe a seven or eight.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: All right, how about two to one odds. I will bet you $50 against 25 that Micron is not coming to Nebraska.

SENATOR LINDSAY: Senator Chambers, until your bill allowing gambling goes through, I don't think I ought to be participating in such a...

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Well, the Governor bets the Governor of various states every time they have an Orange Bowl game, so everybody gambles. That is a known. This is a gambling state.

SENATOR LINDSAY: Well, I can't be held responsible for what the Governor does.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Ten dollars against five dollars then, that's more decent...how about that?

SENATOR LINDSAY: No, I'm...I understand where you are going. I just...I...

SENATOR CHAMBERS: You don't really believe, do you?

SENATOR LINDSAY: No, I think we're...what I think is we are in
