

United States Constitution. I believe that that's a fairly good representation, it's merely a clarification that this is not a constitutional convention.

SPEAKER WITHEM: Thank you, Senator Kristensen. For discussion on the Kristensen amendment, the Chair recognizes Senator Chambers. Chair does not see Senator Chambers. Is there any other discussion on the Kristensen amendment? Senator Kristensen, you're recognized to close. Closing has been waived. The question now is the adoption of the Kristensen amendment. All in favor vote aye, opposed vote nay. Record, Mr. Clerk.

CLERK: 26 ayes, 0 nays, Mr. President, on adoption of Senator Kristensen's amendment to the committee amendments.

SPEAKER WITHEM: Senator Kristensen's amendment is adopted. Anything further, Mr. Clerk?

CLERK: Senator Witek would move to amend, Mr. President. Journal, page 950. (AM0732.)

SPEAKER WITHEM: Senator Witek.

SENATOR WITEK: Mr. Speaker, members of the Legislature, my amendment is on page 950 in the Journal, makes two changes to the language in the resolution. I hope everyone has taken time to read through the language of this resolution. It's very interesting if nothing else. And my amendment, on page 3, line 23, would add, after the language on the...they're talking about forming the action plan, that nothing in the action plan shall constitute an application by the states for the calling of a federal constitutional convention within the meaning of Article V of the Constitution of the United States. You just adopted Senator Kristensen's amendment. I already understand that this resolution in and of itself is not a calling for a constitutional convention. There's no language in here to say that it is. But as I was getting more information on this subject I read through a lot of the information on how to call for a constitutional convention, and actually it's pretty ambiguous. They talk about making application, they don't say in which way you would make an application or how you would do that. So just to be perfectly clear, the first part of my amendment talks about that nothing in the action plan that they write up when they first get there will say that they will make
