

as it exists. This bill didn't come from the Governor. Let me ask Senator Pirsch, maybe I'm presuming. Senator Pirsch, did the Governor ask you to introduce this bill?

PRESIDENT ROBAK: Senator Pirsch.

SENATOR PIRSCH: No, actually, he asked Senator Day to introduce a bill. But, Senator Chambers,...

SENATOR CHAMBERS: But he didn't...okay, you answered that. Thank you. Because I have less than a minute.

SENATOR PIRSCH: ...it will revert back...

PRESIDENT ROBAK: Time. Thank you, Senators. Thank you, Senator Chambers. Senator Pirsch, your light is next.

SENATOR PIRSCH: Thank you, Madam President. It's too bad that we have gotten off on the abortion ground. I have had six children and I am definitely supportive of the unborn child. But I will tell you, and you know that when you are pregnant your lifestyle is the same. You work, you eat normally, you maybe exercise more, and life is the same. The baby derives no benefit from cash that you get and, indeed, in many cases, that cash just allows for something detrimental. But, again, I passed out "The Welfare Debate Shifts to Moral Ground". Where have we been by increasing all of those dollars? The federal government, the state government has, over the last two decades, increased by millions, hundreds of millions that kind of support. And where has it gotten us? It has gotten us to the point when everyone says we need a change. Our family values are nil. Our family life is not there. When I read that response to Senator Lindsay on why I am doing this, I forgot to tell you that it was Pius...Pope Pius the XI who declared, in 1931, in "Quadragesimo Anno", on reconstructing the social order, just as is gravely wrong to take from individuals what they can accomplish by their own initiative and industry and give it to the community, so also it is an injustice and at the same time a grave evil and disturbance of right order to assign to a greater and higher association, which is the state and the federal government, what lesser and subordinate organizations can do, the family, the churches for every social activity out of its very nature to furnish help to the members of the body social and never destroy or absorb them. And I tell you that in our welfare state we have destroyed people. We have destroyed
