

PRESIDENT ROBAK: One minute.

SENATOR PIRSCH: ...that everyone can achieve better than their parents, that we have lost that of working hard and getting a better education than your parents, of doing better. And I would hope that being poor does not mean poor in other ways. But that is the insidiousness of the welfare system today, I'm afraid.

PRESIDENT ROBAK: Thank you, Senator Pirsch. Senator Witek, your light is next.

SENATOR WITEK: Question.

PRESIDENT ROBAK: Question has been called. Do I see five hands? I see five hands. The question before you is, shall debate cease? All those in favor vote aye; all those opposed vote nay. Have you all voted? Senator.
