

this. The A bill would move along and it would advance and it would pass. So the question that we really want to do is on the binding of the Legislature. It is not to say that you have to come up with another bill again, of course you don't. It would be, in fact, the intent and it would appear but we would have the ability, the flexibility...

SENATOR HALL: One minute.

SENATOR BERNARD-STEVENS: ...to make whatever changes we need to do and that's good policy.

SENATOR HALL: Thank you, Senator Bernard-Stevens. Before I recognize Senator Vrtiska, who is next, I'd like to introduce guests of Senator Janssen in the north balcony, 48 fifth graders from Linden Elementary in Fremont, with their sponsors. Would you please rise and be welcomed by the Legislature. Thank you for coming today. Senator Vrtiska. Waives off. Seeing no further debate on the McKenzie amendment to the McKenzie amendment, Senator McKenzie, to close.

SENATOR MCKENZIE: Thank you, Mr. President, and just to make sure you understand what the amendment does, it adds the term definition for "delivered or delivery" to the amendment which is before you. That's all that this particular amendment does to the original amendment we've had discussion on. Thank you.

SENATOR HALL: Thank you, Senator McKenzie. You've heard the close on the amendment. The question is, shall the amendment to the amendment be adopted? All those in favor vote aye, opposed nay. Have you all voted? Record, Mr. Clerk.

CLERK: 25 ayes, 0 nays, Mr. President, on adoption of Senator McKenzie's amendment to her amendment.

SENATOR HALL: The amendment to the amendment is adopted. Anything further, Mr. Clerk?

CLERK: Senator Withem would move to amend Senator McKenzie's amendment.

SENATOR HALL: Senator Withem, to open on your amendment. Senator Withem would pull that amendment. Anything further on the amendment to the amendment?
