

SENATOR CROSBY: One minute.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: ...or not a man facing death will have a hearing, that little gentleman stated that I am going to review all the material they gave me before making a decision but my mind is open, how much reviewing can he do between the end of a night basketball game and nine o'clock in the morning? And why would a Governor, when it is in his hands to be the deciding vote as to whether a hearing is even given, go to a basketball game the night before and expect me to take him seriously about anything. Now if I were going to take shots at the little fellow, that's the kind of shots I would take. But just because he shows himself a nincompoop on something like this, that puts him beneath my notice. Every round I would fire would go over his head. There are certain critters that I would not even put within my sights if they are not at least of a certain stature, and he doesn't qualify. I am talking about the integrity...

SENATOR CROSBY: Time. Thank you, Senator Chambers. Senator Witek, there are no other lights.

SENATOR WITEK: Okay.

SENATOR CROSBY: Would you like to use this as your closing.

SENATOR WITEK: I will. I will use it as my closing. I just wanted to make sure that before you make a decision on this vote, and I suppose we should maybe do a call of the house, so I might as well do that starting now, so we can save some time.

SENATOR CROSBY: There is a request for a call of the house. All in favor vote aye, opposed no. Record, Mr. Clerk.

CLERK: 14 ayes, 0 nays to go under call, Madam President.

SENATOR CROSBY: The house is under call. Would all unauthorized personnel please leave the floor. Would all senators please record your presence. Would those senators who are not in the Chamber, please return and record your presence. The house is under call. Senator Witek.

SENATOR WITEK: Thank you. I just wanted to read to you a resolution that was passed, I believe it was passed in Nevada this year, January 24, 1995. At least it was referred to the Committee on Government Affairs in Nevada, and what it proposes
