

told you so". Senator Witek told you so. Senator Wesely told you so. And, Senator Witek, I just happened to think, when you said Witek, Chambers, Wesely or Witek, Wesely, Chambers, but WCW, world championship wrestling.

SENATOR CROSBY: One minute.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Those things pop in your head when you're, you know, sitting around, trying to find something for your brain cells to occupy themselves with. But I wish somebody would respond to some of the things that I'm saying, in terms of who, and I don't mean name people, who is going to comprise the delegation, and how much confidence are you going to have in them, standing in hostile territory when you see the lack of will and backbone right here at home? Everybody can shadowbox at home, everybody. But that is not even being done here. And I really am concerned, not just about the shilly-shallying we do on this resolution but if the resolution is adopted and you send some people, who...

SENATOR CROSBY: Time.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: ...will bell the cat?

SENATOR CROSBY: Thank you, Senator Chambers. Senator Engel.

SENATOR ENGEL: Madam Speaker, members of the body, I'd just like to respond to Senator Chambers very briefly because we don't want to extend this. I do listen to you the first time you say something. After that, the second and third time, I try to remember what you said the first time. One other thing that I do enjoy, and I wish I had written them down, I think we could write a new book of parables that I hear those every week in church and I certainly enjoy yours. So, from on, I'm going to try to write those down and we'll...maybe we can publish a book together. Thank you.

SENATOR CROSBY: Thank you, Senator Engel. Senator Wehrbein.

SENATOR WEHRBEIN: Question.

SENATOR CROSBY: The question has been called. Do I see five hands? I do. The question is, shall debate cease? All in favor vote aye, opposed no. We're voting to cease debate. Have you all voted? We're voting to cease debate. Have you all
