

central problems we have in our country today and I hope that we will begin to positively address this issue and I think Senator Beutler's idea is a good one.

SPEAKER WITHEM: Thank you, Senator Wesely. Senator Vrtiska.

SENATOR VRTISKA: Thank you, Mr. Speaker, members of the body, I would like to ask Senator Beutler a question or two if I might.

SPEAKER WITHEM: Senator Beutler. Senator Beutler, will you respond to a question?

SENATOR BEUTLER: Yes.

SENATOR VRTISKA: Senator, you indicated this would be for two years at $50,000 a year. What happens after the two years when we have a Governor and the other candidates who run for other offices when the amount of money that could be required would be greater? How have you addressed that?

SENATOR BEUTLER: Senator, what my feeling of what the body is telling me is that they want to see how this works and that the most they're willing to do is to set this up for a two-year period and see how it works through a set of elections.

SENATOR VRTISKA: Okay.

SENATOR BEUTLER: And I think without a doubt there is going to be another bill after those elections to, based on that experience, for better or for worse.

SENATOR VRTISKA: Okay, then so you're just talking about the upcoming legislative races that...

SENATOR BEUTLER: Right.

SENATOR VRTISKA: ...would be involved right now. The other question I had is, as I understand, and I think that I'm right, and you can tell me if I'm not, you're talking about all of the other parts of the bill that require the agreements and all those things to meet these requirements will still be in place, the other parts of the bill that require you to qualify for these funds and et cetera that's in the bill?

SENATOR BEUTLER: Yes, sir, the basic campaign finance
