

one of those individuals that on Friday voted, in fact, to eliminate the Campaign Finance Limitation Act. But, as others have already indicated, that's not the will of the body at this point in time. As such, I believe that Senator Beutler is trying to do what I think needs to be done, and that's improve the little blue folder that's been sent out to all of us or put on our desk by, I believe, Senator Beutler. And as a result I think he's making some steps towards improving the Finance Limitation Act that I think we need to keep in mind people are going to be running for some very important offices in less than two years. As such I don't think we can ignore the current statute just because we might be against the entire, entire philosophical venue of public financing and campaign finance. So as a result I would encourage the advancement of this bill to Select File.

SPEAKER WITHEM: Thank you, Senator Maurstad. Senator Beutler, followed by Senator Wesely and Senator Chambers. Senator Wesely. Question has been called. Do I see five hands? I do. We'll vote on whether debate should be ceased. All those in favor vote aye, opposed vote nay. Senator Kristensen, for what point do you rise?

SENATOR KRISTENSEN: For just a point of information. Is this vote on the advancement, or is this on cease debate?

SPEAKER WITHEM: The motion before us is to cease debate. Mr. Clerk, maybe we should get that listed on the board.

SENATOR KRISTENSEN: There's just some confusion, I just wanted to clarify it for the.... Thank you.

SPEAKER WITHEM: Yeah, thank you. The question is, shall debate now cease? Senator Wesely.

SENATOR WESELY: I'd ask for a call.

SPEAKER WITHEM: Question is, shall the house go under call? All those in favor vote aye, opposed vote nay. Would members please return to the Chamber...or excuse me. Record, Mr. Clerk.

CLERK: 27 ayes, 1 nay to go under call, Mr. President.

SPEAKER WITHEM: Okay, we are under call. The question is...we are now under call. Members, please return to the floor, record
