

agency without being able to tell that agency what it is to do, how it is to do it and give them direction in terms of what these words mean in the law that we enact, what it is we expect them to do when we say analyze and determine fiscal impact. I guess my time is just about up. Madam President, I'll ask for a call of the house.

PRESIDENT ROBAK: Thank you, Senator Chambers. There has been a request for a call of the house. All those in favor vote aye. All those opposed nay. Please record.

CLERK: 8 ayes, 0 nays to go under call.

PRESIDENT ROBAK: The house is under call. Will all senators please return to their seats. Will all unauthorized personnel please leave the floor. The house is under call. Senators, please check in. Senator Fisher, Senator Schellpeper. Senator Bernard-Stevens, Senator Kristensen. Senator Beutler, Senator Lynch, Senator McKenzie, Senator Pirsch, Senator Robak, Senator Scheilpeper, Senator Vrtiska, Senator Stuhr, Senator Fisher, Senator Wesely and Senator Landis. Senator Chambers.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Madam President, may I begin my close?

PRESIDENT ROBAK: You may.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Madam President, I had already closed.

PRESIDENT ROBAK: I was going to say, finish it, Senator, you have ten seconds left.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Okay.

PRESIDENT ROBAK: While we are waiting for senators to return to their seats, Senator Dierks has asked for a point of personal privilege.

SENATOR DIERKS: Thank you, Madam President and members of the body, I just wanted to take the opportunity to remind you of the luncheon at the Hruska Law Center at noon today. It is being sponsored, cosponsored by the Ag Committee and the elk and ratite breeders of the state and will give you the opportunity to eat some elk meat and some emu meat, among some other things. It is being prepared by the chef at Billy's and I think we have an excellent repast for you at noon. Thank you.