

district court who is doing divorces all the time.

SENATOR VRTISKA: Now one final thing, and we talked about this earlier.

PRESIDENT ROBAK: One minute.

SENATOR VRTISKA: Originally, you had talked about a board of attorneys or whatever and now you broaden that out to bring some people with more expertise in the field of determining values. Is that correct?

SENATOR KRISTENSEN: Yes, and appraisal techniques and, yes, right.

SENATOR VRTISKA: Well, that's the point I wanted to make sure that the body understood that we did talk about that and you were very receptive in apparently trying to put this board together in the best way possible so that they would be fair and be able to deal with issues that would in the end, hopefully, resolve the issues fair and quicker than would be done many times the way it has been in the past.

SENATOR KRISTENSEN: Well, and I'll take that as a compliment and to the extent that attorneys are fair, they're infinitely fair and so I suppose I should take exception to that, but I know how you meant that and I think you're right.

SENATOR VRTISKA: Thank you very much.

PRESIDENT ROBAK: Thank you, Senator Vrtiska. Senator Kristensen, your light is next, followed by Senators Robinson, Maurstad and Avery.

SENATOR KRISTENSEN: Madam President, I turned my light on for Senator Maurstad and if he wanted to spend some additional time asking questions, I'd yield any time to him if he wants to use my time and not take up his turn at bat.

PRESIDENT ROBAK: Senator Maurstad.

SENATOR MAURSTAD: Well, Senator Kristensen, if you could just continue possibly what...and you maybe did this in your opening or intend to do it in your opening on the bill after the committee amendments, but continue to elaborate as to the reason
