

PRESIDENT ROBAK: One minute.

SENATOR BROMM: ...does that ever get to the commission or does that just get to the State Board of Equalization?

SENATOR KRISTENSEN: The intercounty stuff, they'll do a plan.

SENATOR BROMM: The commission will do a plan?

SENATOR KRISTENSEN: Will do a plan, but it's not binding on what that will be because I don't think you can take away the powers from the State board of Equalization absent a constitutional amendment.

SENATOR BROMM: So that would stay with the State Board of Equalization?

SENATOR KRISTENSEN: Yes.

SENATOR BROMM: Okay, okay. Now, on an appeal to the commission, if someone feels they are aggrieved with respect to the valuation of their property or some other relevant matter that the commission can handle, is there a time limit that they have to take that decision to the commission? Let's say we have a...and it's probably in here and I apologize if I missed it, let's say the county board denies the appeal or the request...

PRESIDENT ROBAK: Time.

SENATOR BROMM: ...from the taxpayer...we'll continue it. Thank you, Madam President.

PRESIDENT ROBAK: Thank you, Senator Bromm. Senator Janssen.

SENATOR JANSSEN: Madam Chairman, members, I'd like to ask Senator Kristensen a few questions if he would answer.

PRESIDENT ROBAK: Senator Kristensen.

SENATOR KRISTENSEN: Yes.

SENATOR JANSSEN: Is there or should there be some type of regulation at the county level whereby they have a set of guidelines that they have to follow? The reason for that is so
