

SENATOR KRISTENSEN: Yes, I certainly will try to do that. One of the requirements of the commissioners serving on the commission, we have them outlined in the bill, and that, if I remember right, is that in Section 4 of the bill?

SENATOR HALL: It would be on page 4, it would be Section 2, actually, or, no, Section 4.

SENATOR KRISTENSEN: Section 4, you start at the bottom of the page...

SENATOR HALL: Subsection (3), right.

SENATOR KRISTENSEN: Yeah, we put in there, and this is sort of the laundry list of things that we want them to have some familiarity with, and one of the items at the committee level that we talked about was, look, we want them to know something about economics, appraisals.

SENATOR HALL: So this just goes to their qualifications for purposes of...

SENATOR KRISTENSEN: Right, this goes to the qualifications.

SENATOR HALL: Okay.

SENATOR KRISTENSEN: We want them to have some of those...in effect, this is a touch-me amendment that says, look, remember, you have got to do these things, so you ought to be qualified to do it.

SENATOR HALL: Okay, so it is going to limit the pool of who is going to be eligible?

SENATOR KRISTENSEN: Well,...

SENATOR HALL: And clearly they are going to have expertise in this area, that's the desire?

SENATOR KRISTENSEN: Yes, that's the desire, right.

SENATOR HALL: Okay.

SENATOR KRISTENSEN: It would pro...it would eliminate me. Of course,...
