

questions about what some of those statistical things could do. I am going to reexamine those between now and Select too, so if you have some things,...

PRESIDENT ROBAK: One minute.

SENATOR KRISTENSEN: ...I guess I plan to put a Select File amendment in here based on the discussion we have had today to clean that up.

SENATOR HALL: Well, and I just want to clarify something, and I will do that when my light goes on again, but on the balance of this amendment, the very last item, it amends the Standing Committee amendments and it says, it now says that the commission would have the ability to suspend or remove an assessment official from office?

SENATOR KRISTENSEN: Right, for failure to comply with any order.

SENATOR HALL: So they would have the ability to remove an elected official from office?

SENATOR KRISTENSEN: Yes, that is similar to what the Department of Revenue has right now. That's where I got the language from.

SENATOR HALL: Well, in what way? I mean, what are the criteria; merely for failure to comply with any order of the commission? I mean...

SENATOR KRISTENSEN: That...

SENATOR HALL: ...are we not talking about...I mean, that we are talking about negating the public's vote and we're...

PRESIDENT ROBAK: Time. Thank you, Senator Hall. Senator Vrtiska.

SENATOR VRTISKA: Thank you, Madam President. I just have a short question that I think...Senator Kristensen, could I bother you again?

PRESIDENT ROBAK: Senator Kristensen.

SENATOR VRTISKA: My question...
