

SENATOR PIRSCH: Oh, but some.

SENATOR KRISTENSEN: Well, if you are asking what my intent was, my intent was not to do that. There is this subsection that is in there that may be left over from my tax court bill that I had, and as we talk about maybe that is where the drafting...where I missed that subsection.

SENATOR PIRSCH: Okay.

SENATOR KRISTENSEN: So, I can tell you my basic intent is that the tax equalization commission should deal with those individual assessments as their area of expertise. And as long as we have a State Board of Equalization, they ought to deal with the centrally assessed property.

SENATOR PIRSCH: Okay, thank you.

PRESIDENT ROBAK: Thank you, Senator Pirsch. Senator Hall, do you wish to speak to the first three sections? Senator Bromm, do you wish to speak to the first three sections? Senator Jensen, to the first three sections of the Kristensen amendment.

SENATOR JENSEN: Thank you, Madam President, members of the...who are we here...body, to just, a couple of questions, Senator Kristensen.

PRESIDENT ROBAK: Senator Kristensen.

SENATOR KRISTENSEN: Yes.

SENATOR JENSEN: The terms are for six years. They can be reappointed, is that correct?

SENATOR KRISTENSEN: Yes, they can.

SENATOR JENSEN: And then I just had a question on the property tax administrator, he is also appointed by the Governor, is that correct?

SENATOR KRISTENSEN: Yes, she would be, right.

SENATOR JENSEN: Oh, okay.
