

SENATOR SCHELLPEPER: I suppose if you're a dealer, I don't...I really don't know, Senator.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Well, under this language, if the car has been licensed and registered then the reduction has to be at least 15 percent in value

SENATOR SCHELLPEPER: Well, you have my copy of the amendment but I think it says over 10,000 miles.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: No, there are two basis for it. One is that it was licensed and registered previously, or have over 10,000 miles on the odometer at the time of sale. So either one of those will result in the reduction. And this is one of those amendments I wish the body would pay attention to because it could result in mischief which is not anticipated or contemplated by Senator Schellpeper.

SENATOR SCHELLPEPER: No, my...

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Senator Schellpeper, would you want the amendment to say...

SENATOR SCHELLPEPER: Ten thousand miles.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: ...it would apply only.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Right.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Then what is the purpose of having the language about previously licensed and registered?

SENATOR SCHELLPEPER: Well, it probably should say "and" 10,000 miles, previously licensed and 10,000 miles instead of "or".

SENATOR CHAMBERS: So then you want to change that to "and" instead of "or"?

SENATOR SCHELLPEPER: It would probably be better, yes.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Okay. Now I have to ask some more questions, knowing that that's going to be taken care of. If the car...what is a program car? I'm asking some of you rich "Repelicans" this question. What is a program vehicle? A
