PRESIDENT ROBAK: Please record.

CLERK: 26 ayes, 2 nays to cease debate, Madam President.

PRESIDENT ROBAK: Debate ceases. Senator Chambers, to close on his amendment.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Madam President, members of the Legislature, the first thing I will do is pass onto Senator Brashear what one of my colleagues said to me and he shall remain nameless. If we accept Senator Brashear's argument, it took a democratic governor and a democratic speaker to bring economic development to Nebraska. And now I will add this, Senator Brashear, it's mighty big of you to give that much credit to members of the opposing party, but I still think it's a bad bill. Senator Brashear said that the terms "blighted and substandard" have been used in economic development law for however long. Senator Brashear, the drafting, the content of LB 830 qualify it to be...have those terms attached to it, the bill is blighted and
