LB 425

SENATOR BERNARD-STEVENS: ...we'll have a chance to override, and then a group of us will come back later and say, gee, shouldn't we wait and come back later so we can have a decision on all the overrides, and members are going to want to go home, and they will say, nah, let's don't come back, let's just let the Governor do it. So we have all those things to look forward to. Right now, however, what we have is the decision on whether we want to advance the bill that does what this bill purports to try to do. Number one, I would like to, when Pat gets his time, if he could explain to me what the criteria is for companies that can receive this grant, and also which companies cannot apply for the grant, and why. I'm particularly interested into the section that talks about sale of tangible personal property, and then those sections, on line 15 on page 4, that talk about financial services that, obviously, are...

SPEAKER WITHEM: Time.

SENATOR BERNARD-STEVENS: ...not tangible property.

SPEAKER WITHEM: Senator Maurstad.

SENATOR MAURSTAD: I will call the question on the bracket motion.

SPEAKER WITHEM: Do I see five hands? I do. The question is, shall debate now cease? All those in favor vote aye, opposed vote nay. Senator Bernard-Stevens, for what purpose do you rise?

SENATOR BERNARD-STEVENS: To have a call of the house and a roll call vote please.

SPEAKER WITHEM: The question is, shall the house go under call. All those in favor vote aye, opposed vote nay. Record, Mr. Clerk.

CLERK: 19 ayes, 0 nays to go under call, Mr. President.

SPEAKER WITHEM: The house is under call. Would members please return to the floor, record their presence. The house is under call. Would members please return to the floor. Senator Bohlke, Senator Lynch, Senator Schrock, Senator Wesely. Senator Lynch and Senator Bohlke, please return to the floor. Senator Bohlke and Senator Lynch. We are waiting, Senator Bohlke.
