

Pennsylvania, and, therefore, Pennsylvania is collecting that rate for Nebraska companies doing business in Pennsylvania. Why? Because Pennsylvania companies have to pay it in Nebraska.

SENATOR BEUTLER: Okay, thank you.

SPEAKER WITHEM PRESIDING

SPEAKER WITHEM: Thank you, Senator Landis. There are no further lights on. I'd be happy to recognize the senator to close on the motion to return, but I don't have any idea who that senator was. So Senator Lindsay, are you going to do it?

SENATOR LINDSAY: Sure. Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Members, I think that Senators Warner, Hall, and Landis have laid out the arguments much better than I could...could have, and I think it is a, especially with the explanation from Senator Landis on how the retaliation, retaliatory tax works, and as Senator Warner mentioned, in the long term, doing rates where that...cause a retaliation from other states in the long term costs you rather than increases you. As I mentioned, the fiscal note on this initially is very low. It is 44,500. It could increase somewhat as Senator Hall mentioned. It's not anticipating it to increase certainly not up to the level that it was originally introduced. I think the Revenue Committee did a good job of working on the...working on the language when it comes out as limited as it should be. With that, I'd urge the return to Select File and the adoption of the amendment.

SPEAKER WITHEM: The question is, shall LB 300 be returned to Select File for consideration of a specific amendment? All those in favor vote aye, opposed vote nay. Record.

CLERK: 30 ayes, 0 nays, Mr. President, on the motion to return the bill.

SPEAKER WITHEM: The bill is returned. Senator Lindsay, would you like to open on your amendment.

SENATOR LINDSAY: Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I'd simply move the amendment.

SPEAKER WITHEM: You've heard the motion. Is there any discussion? Seeing none, any closing. I assume closing is waived. The question is, shall the amendment found on Journal
