

adoption is to advise or warn the biological mother of the need to determine the father. That is found on page 3 of the bill in Section 2. Section 3 spells out to whom the notice, for purposes of the mailing requirement, is to be sent to and it says that any...it shall be in all cases of a child born out of wedlock and prior to placement of the child in an adoptive home, notice shall be given pursuant to Section 4 of this act to the following persons by certified mail with return receipt requested and with restricted delivery to the address. So we sent it to any person adjudicated by the court in the state to be the biological father of the child; any person adjudicated by a court in other state or territory of the United States to be the biological father of the child and any person who has timely filed notice of intent to claim paternity and obtain custody with the putative father registry to Section 43-104.02 which is further on in the proposal within 30 days preceding the notice required by this section; fourth, any person who is recorded on the child's birth certificate as the child's father and; fifth, any person who was openly living with the child's biological mother within 12 months prior to the birth of the child; sixth, any person who has been identified as the child's father by the child's biological mother under Section 1 of this act; seven, any person who was married to the child's biological mother within six months prior to the birth of the child and prior to the execution of the relinquishment and, lastly, any person who the agency or attorney representing the biological mother has reason to believe may be the biological father of the child. The purposes of Section 3 is to try to, within the net of notification, get to as many individuals as possible on notification. Section 4 spells out what the notice shall contain. It says that it will (1) state the biological mother's name, the fact that she was pregnant or has given birth to the child or the expected or actual date of delivery; the child's biological mother has placed or intends to place the child for adoption; (2) that the person being notified has been identified as a possible biological father of the child; (3) that the possible biological father may have certain rights with respect to such child if he is in fact the biological father; (4) that the possible biological father has the right to deny paternity, be...waive any parental rights he may have; (c) relinquish the consent to the adoption of the child; or (d) file placement of intent to claim paternity and obtain custody with putative father registry pursuant to Section 43-104.02 if he has not already done so; (6) that if the possible biological father does not file with the putative father registry within five