

can get out there and sell her rear end, or her vagina, or her mouth to these young men...

SENATOR CROSBY: One minute.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: ...who are willing to take advantage of that situation. Don't be embarrassed because I talk about it. That's what you all want. That's what you believe in, and that's what we are talking about doing. There are women who are in prostitution now who are not as bad off as some are going to be under these circumstances but they face dastardly conditions. And I say, let's just go ahead and make Nebraska the kind of state it actually is and strip this hypocrisy away. Senator Hall's amendment is the one we ought to adopt. Governor Nelson is complicit. Mary Dean Harvey is complicit because Senator Wesely has said DSS sees nothing wrong with this. They are all putting the children and the poor on the chopping block, and I say we should give them what they are asking for. Lincoln, or somebody said, the way to get rid of a bad law is to enforce it. The way to get people to stop asking for something is to give them what they are asking for. In this instance, even before the damage is really perceived, we will get rid of a lot of old sick people,...

SENATOR CROSBY: Time.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: ...and a lot of these kids who are sick.

SENATOR CROSBY: Thank you, Senator Chambers. Senator Vrtiska.

SENATOR VRTISKA: Thank you, Senator Crosby. I just after...I didn't, my staff, after some search, found the section of the law that deals with the counties providing assistance to indigents, and it is under Section 77-1601, and it says before levying taxes for any other...any other function of county government, each county shall first levy a tax sufficient to enable the county to provide medical, surgical, and hospital care for needy persons of the county. Now, the way I understand the Hall amendment is if they lose their eligibility due to their own actions...Senator Hall, can I ask you a question.

SENATOR CROSBY: Senator Hall.

SENATOR VRTISKA: As I understand your amendment, it says that if they lose their eligibility based on their own actions, is
