

turn around hypocritically and say, but we're going to do all within our power to frustrate a father from obtaining custody of his child when he's willing to do it. You are creating an insurmountable legal barrier to this man obtaining custody of his child. And you have already created an insurmountable legal barrier to a woman revoking the relinquishment. Where is the morality, where are the ethics, and it is a religious group...

PRESIDENT ROBAK: One minute.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: ...fueling what it is you all are doing. And I say you all instead of us, because I'm not a part of this unethical, reprehensible exercise. You do well to hang your heads and leave the Chamber and talk and act like you don't know what I'm saying or you're not listening. You are wrong! You are morally wrong! And if there is a God in heaven, He'll condemn you for committing sins in what you're doing! I'm using your terminology now. You are absolutely sinful and immoral in what you are doing and you are carrying water for these baby peddlers. And you ought to kill LB 592 on the spot. I look at all these...that's the one where you take these licenses because men will not pay their child support. How hypocritical and dishonest can you be! And I hope you are violently angry because then you will speak your honest thoughts. But you have no defense against what I'm saying. I want to hear the defense...

PRESIDENT ROBAK: Time.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: ...if there is one.

PRESIDENT ROBAK: Thank you, Senator Chambers. Senator Wesely, do you wish to speak to the bracket motion? Excuse me, Mr. Clerk.

CLERK: Just a moment, Senator, just an announcement that the Building and Maintenance Committee is meeting in Room 2022 now; Building Maintenance Committee.

PRESIDENT ROBAK: Thank you, Mr. Clerk. Senator Wesely.

SENATOR WESELY: That was exciting news, I'm glad we had a chance to hear that. (Laughter.) Madam President, members of the Legislature, I've just talked to Senator Bernard-Stevens. I think we were just about to deal with the Stuhr amendment and I
