

if you will.

SENATOR CROSBY: Senator Wesely.

SENATOR WESELY: Prenatal care is primarily for the child, the unborn child to be born healthy.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Is there any concern for the health of the mother at this time?

SENATOR WESELY: Well, to achieve the goal of having a healthy birth, the mother must be healthy, so you help the mother stay healthy and that will help the fetus become healthy and then be born healthy.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Now when you mentioned that you were having hearings on this bill and people were expressing concern about this aspect of it, who expressed concern with reference to most aspects of the bill, who were the ones expressing all this concern and opposition?

SENATOR WESELY: The opposition to the bill has been primarily from the adoption agencies.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Is Senator...oh, there, Senator Schimek, I want to ask you a question because you were concerned about the idea of maybe the woman would change her mind about putting the child up for adoption in the first instance if she realized that the father was going to seek custody. I want to ask you this question.

SENATOR SCHIMEK: Certainly.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: But first, let me ask, okay, is the mother introduced to the family who will adopt that child?

SENATOR CROSBY: Senator Schimek.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: If you know.

SENATOR SCHIMEK: Senator, I don't know for certain but I don't believe so in most cases.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: You are right. Now suppose she learns that a family to whom she objects violently was allowed to adopt the
