

SPEAKER WITHEM: Thank you, Senator Hall. It is my distinct pleasure to recognize some guests we have under the south balcony. There is a group from the Ukrainian Parliament Information Service, been invited to the United States under the auspices of the Freedom Support Grant Program of the United States Information Agency. I would like to at least attempt to introduce each one individually. Our guests from the Ukrainian Parliament, we have Kykhailo Kosiv; we have Victor Karpenko; Anatoly Borisov; Andry Snihach; Eduart Afonin; their interpreters Daniel Lovick, and Juri Rozenshtekher; and we also have with them from the Lincoln International Committee on Friendship representative, Art Nicolai. It is our distinct pleasure to introduce you folks. We'd like to ask you to stand and be recognized. Thank you very much for visiting with us. Senator Pirsch, you are recognized.

SENATOR PIRSCH: Thank you, Mr Speaker, members of the body. If he would yield, I do have some questions for Senator Kristensen.

SENATOR KRISTENSEN: Yes, Senator Pirsch.

SENATOR PIRSCH: Senator Kristensen.

SENATOR KRISTENSEN: Yes.

SENATOR PIRSCH: This, you have called this act the County Revenue Assistance Act.

SENATOR KRISTENSEN: Yes.

SENATOR PIRSCH: But really in our statement of intent in Section 2, all of those subsections talk about mandated indigent defense fund or services.

SENATOR KRISTENSEN: Help me with where you are at. Are you in the green copy of the bill?

SENATOR PIRSCH: Yes.

SENATOR KRISTENSEN: Okay, and you are looking at Section 2?

SENATOR PIRSCH: Right.

SENATOR KRISTENSEN: Okay.
