

regulation." The re...before I go on, let me ask Senator McKenzie a question.

SENATOR CROSBY: Senator McKenzie.

SENATOR MCKENZIE: Yes.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Senator McKenzie, in line 7 of...it would be page 1 of the amendment as written and which was adopted, are the words "shall be repealed or modified". Those words constitute a mandate and that mandate, as I understand it, is laid out in the rest of this language which talks about rules or regulations or portions of them not required by federal or state law or regulation, and the mandate is that they shall be repealed or modified. Is that correct?

SENATOR MCKENZIE: That's correct, Senator Chambers.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Now when it says the State Board of Education with the assistance of the State Department of Education shall review these rules, who exactly is going to undertake that review and what expertise will they have?

SENATOR MCKENZIE: Senator Chambers, my understanding is that it will in fact be the State Board of Education and Don Anderson, who is the head of special education, along with an advisory committee that the state board has appointed, the Special Education Advisory Committee, which is a broad-based group of constituents and citizens that make suggestions to them about special education.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: When must this repeal or modification take place?

SENATOR MCKENZIE: The board and the department would report with preliminary recommendations November 1st of this year.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: I don't think so. I think what you're looking at is where they'd make recommendations about state laws that should be repealed as opposed to their rules, unless...and I'm feeling my way on this. But I think what you're referring to is state laws.

SENATOR MCKENZIE: Senator Chambers, if I can take a minute of your time,...
