

roles that the two agencies would have to play. So we don't actually change anything, other than we've got a bridge now between the two on this point.

SENATOR ROBINSON: How many places do we have out in the state as far as community-based mental health services are concerned? I'm trying to think of some in my district, I don't even...I don't even know of one.

SENATOR WESELY: In terms of service providers...

SENATOR ROBINSON: Is it larger...in the larger cities or...

SENATOR WESELY: Oh, we have...we have health services and providers across the state.

SENATOR ROBINSON: No, I'm talking about mental health services.

SENATOR WESELY: Right, mental health, absolutely, um-huh. The regions are set up, the six regions are set up and within the regions different areas have got different providers, and so...

SENATOR ROBINSON: Okay.

SENATOR WESELY: ...we could get you that information, we have that.

SENATOR ROBINSON: Okay, thank you.

SENATOR WESELY: Sure.

PRESIDENT ROBAK: Thank you, Senator. Senator Lynch.

SENATOR LYNCH: Thank you, Madam President. Can I ask Senator Wesely a question, if I...

PRESIDENT ROBAK: Senator Wesely.

SENATOR WESELY: Sure.

SENATOR LYNCH: I understand this is with DSS now, not DPI. I have a concern, the last time we developed some extraordinary monies to be managed through DPI, only one region got those monies because of the program description, which the monies, supposedly, were allocated for. In this case, and I think we
