

start talking about taking a professional license away, why then people start coming up with the cash and making their payments. I think many times we try to legislate things and try to make it for a nonperfect world and it's difficult for us to legislate all the situations that are available out there that can cause difficulties with what we've done. So I just urge us to be very cautious about this and I would like to at some time or another have some guidelines in place for the courts because I'm not sure that they're doing what..at least I sure get a lot of complaints in my district from people who think the courts have been unfair, and I...and maybe they have been and maybe they haven't been but I sure hope we travel along this way very cautiously because I think there's other things that can be done besides taking professional licenses away, even drivers' licenses, for that matter. I guess, with that, I'll just wait and listen to the rest of the debate and see what else we can come up with here. Thank you.

PRESIDENT ROBAK: Thank you, Senator Dierks. Senator Wehrbein.

SENATOR WEHRBEIN: Yes, Madam President, and members, I would like to ask Senator Day a question, but first of all, I'll make some comments. I support what you're doing but I do want to be clear on what the dollar implications are of the personnel that may need to be hired and how it fits in, especially with your amendment. So if you would expand on that a little bit, I may have missed it because I've been in and out, but that's what I...

PRESIDENT ROBAK: Senator Day.

SENATOR WEHRBEIN: ...that's my question.

PRESIDENT ROBAK: Senator Day.

SENATOR DAY: Thank you, Senator Wehrbein. There would be no...this amendment will not change anything during this biennium because we're not putting it into effect until January of '97. It is possible, as we work through this and see what the need will be, that there will have to be another child support referee hired as of then. As I stated before, what I've checked out on the cost of hiring another child support referee runs the state about $50,000 plus a year. Part of that, if they deal with 40 cases, is reimbursed by the federal government; however, visitation interference is not a IV-D, will not fall
