

comparable system in Nebraska would say if I get divorced in Brown County, that's going to pop up on the computer down here in Lincoln; if I get divorced in Douglas County, it is going to pop up; if I get divorced in Keith County, it is going to pop up, so that we have that... centralized information. As it is, our information is diffused among the many courthouses throughout the state, and accumulation of that data, I don't know that we are on track to do that, to be successful in implementing the bill. And I don't know that we've looked at that issue. I am completely supportive of collecting support... of collecting child support. I have represented clients doing that. I've represented clients pro bono doing that because I think it needs to be done, but the question is, have we looked at the cost that we are going to incur and the efficiency that is going to occur from that? I don't think we have. That's where my objection to this side of this issue is.

SPEAKER WITHEM PRESIDING

SPEAKER WITHEM: Time.

SENATOR LINDSAY: I don't know that we've done that.

SPEAKER WITHEM: Thank you, Senator Lindsay. I would like to recognize 22 fifth graders from Mead Elementary School with their teacher, who are down here. They are guests of Senator Hudkins. They are in the north balcony. If you will please stand and be recognized. Mr. Clerk, I understand there is an amendment.

CLERK: Mr. President, Senator Chambers would move to amend. (See FA179 found on pages 1913-14 of the Legislative Journal.)

SPEAKER WITHEM: Senator Chambers.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Mr. President, and mem...Mr. Speaker and members of the Legislature, I have put around on your desk an amendment to Senator Day's amendment, which I have shown her and she agrees with. The way Senator Day's amendment is drafted, apparent...a person apparently would have to pay this fee, even if there had been an error and then it is returned. What I am amending it to do is to indicate that if when a person goes for the reinstatement, you establish at that point that the fee should not have been paid, you don't even have to pay it over in the first instance. You just don't pay it, your license is
