to go through that. I have to tell you that I oppose your bill simply because the... the... I haven't obviously... the reason I asked those questions, I haven't had the time to review your bill cause I was gone part of the time. I have looked at Senator Matzke's bill at some length and to me it appeared to be.... And I agree with you, not all the problems are solved and I don't think in either bill all of the... all the problems are going to be solved. There's going to be some out there. I guess what I'm trying to measure is which one's better over the other one and up to this point, from what I've been able to learn and from the little that I've learned of your bill, I do think that his addresses some areas that I think are, to me, are more important and therefore I reluctantly have to oppose your bill at this point and still keep your friendship. Thank you.

SPEAKER WITHEM: Thanks, Senator Matzke (sic). Senator Wesely.
