

everybody...the most of the kids wanted to do, that's what we'll do first, then whatever the next largest number of students wanted to do, that's what we'll do second. Then whatever the fewest students wanted to do, that's what we'll do third. Adults have a way of saying it's all or nothing. You win everything and everybody else loses but there is a way to cooperatively do things so that everybody benefits, everybody participates,...

PRESIDENT ROBAK: One minute.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: ...and even those who don't win the vote, even those who don't win the votes because they don't have enough will accept the outcome because even though they didn't win the vote they don't lose everything, they just have to take their turn. And when you are a part of a group where not everybody agrees, even in the Legislature, where I've often outvoted, I have the opportunity to speak as I'm doing now and when I'm fairly whipped I just pick myself up, dust myself off, start all over again, as I shall do directly with another amendment that I have up there, but I will at least take this amendment to a vote. Madam President, I'm going to ask for a call of the house.

PRESIDENT ROBAK: Thank you, Senator Chambers. There's been a request for a call of the house. All those in favor vote aye; all those opposed vote nay. Please record.

CLERK: 9 ayes, 1 nay to go under call, Madam President.

PRESIDENT ROBAK: The house is under call. Will senators please return to their seats. Will all unauthorized personnel please leave the floor. The house is under call. Senators, please check in.
