

May 4, 1995

LB 309

were not...were subject to the provisions of Section 170, more or less, roughly?

SENATOR WEHRBEIN: Just a second. I...I can't remember who...about 26 or 27 hundred about of about 14,000.

SENATOR BEUTLER: Okay, so roughly...

SENATOR WEHRBEIN: So it's be about a third...

SENATOR BEUTLER: ...?5...

SENATOR WEHRBEIN: ...a fourth.

SENATOR BEUTLER: ...25 to 30 percent...

SENATOR WEHRBEIN: Fourth.

SENATOR BEUTLER: ...of the employees. Okay.

SENATOR WEHRBEIN: Or...yeah.

SENATOR BEUTLER: And...

SENATOR WEHRBEIN: Third. Fifth. Fifth.

SENATOR BEUTLER: Fifth. Okay. And under this provision then, theoretically at least, a fifth of the employees could get no salary increase at all in either year.

SENATOR WEHRBEIN: Well...

SENATOR BEUTLER: Is that correct or not correct?

SENATOR WEHRBEIN: ...theoretically that's true, but that isn't...that isn't the way we appropriated the money. I mean it's appropriated so that everyone is treated the same.

SENATOR BEUTLER: So that everyone is treated the same?

SENATOR WEHRBEIN: They...the 4 and 3.5 percent or the negotiated amount.

SENATOR BEUTLER: Okay. So...so you appropriated to those particular agencies that were not covered by the collective