

SENATOR WEHRBEIN: That's right.

SENATOR BERNARD-STEVENS: ...fund?

SENATOR WEHRBEIN: That's right.

SENATOR BERNARD-STEVENS: Okay, then that takes care of that, and I appreciate that clarification. On page 86,...

SENATOR CROSBY: Time. Senator Bernard-Stevens, your light is on once more.

SENATOR BERNARD-STEVENS: Thank you, and then this is my third time, so I think if...I think if, Senator Crosby,...

SENATOR WEHRBEIN: Mine is on, mine is on.

SENATOR BERNARD-STEVENS: Well, but I think I will be able to do it, just if we get to closing, Roger, and I will just take that last ten minutes, that should be enough, but if yours is on, that is fine. I appreciate that. On page 86, I wanted to ask a question on the SOS employees, that reduced the use of. Was this...was this just a technical part that would have been there anyway on the budget, or was this associated with what the difficulty was on the SOS conflict in general? And was this one of the agencies that might have been using temporaries a little bit more, and if you could just enlighten a little bit more on that, if possible.

SENATOR WEHRBEIN: You are on Agency 86, is that what you said?

SENATOR BERNARD-STEVENS: No, page 86, Agency 31.

SENATOR WEHRBEIN: Okay, I need to find the issue you are talking about. You are talking about SO...the temporary...

SENATOR BERNARD-STEVENS: No, the reduction of...

SENATOR WEHRBEIN: ...oh, reduced use of contracted SOS employees?

SENATOR BERNARD-STEVENS: Yes. And could you enlighten me just a little bit about what...was that an improper use that all of a sudden they are being reduced back in the budget, or is that
