LB 209

Hudkins, there's still time left. Did you wish to take any more of your op.... You've heard the opening on the bill. Mr. Clerk, an amendment.

CLERK: Senator Chambers would move to amend the bill, Mr. President. (See Senator Chambers' FA195 on page 2010 of the Legislative Journal.)

SENATOR BERNARD-STEVENS: Senator Chambers, you're recognized to open on your amendment.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Mr. President and members of the Legislature, I'm sending a copy of this amendment around to the body. As I listen to the discussion of this whole idea of allowing this activity, some questions occurred to my mind and then this proposal developed from that, but I'd like to ask Senator Avery if he can answer some questions for me. Senator Avery, when these fearless hunters, brave, fearless hunters filled to the brim with machismo, go to these confined areas to kill these birds that have been reared in a closely confined setting, how do they attire themselves? Do they wear pith helmets. We'll start at the top. Do they wear a pith helmet generally?

SENATOR AVERY: No.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Do they wear a bucket helmet of the kind that were worn during the war?

SENATOR AVERY: I don't believe so.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Do they wear camouflage outfits?

SENATOR AVERY: Some might.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: And Senator Robinson wants me to ask do they wear jackboots...

SENATOR AVERY: I...I...

SENATOR CHAMBERS: ..on occasion?

SENATOR AVERY: I don't know what they would wear.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Well, what...when they carry a shotgun, what...does the shotgun... would it...do any of them have those
