

May 5, 1995

LB 209

SENATOR AVERY: I would...I don't think so.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Level with me. Is...

SENATOR AVERY: I don't get a pleasure out of the kill.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: ...is there an adrenaline surge when you see one of those animals and you've drawn a bead on it and you know if you don't jerk the trigger or move you'll bring it down? You don't feel... you don't feel... you feel when you're doing that just like you feel standing here today, that's what you're telling me. That's what you're telling all of your colleagues and all the people watching us who go out there hunting in their camouflage clothes, jackboots and bucket helmets. You think they believe you? I don't. I think you do get a kick out of the kill.

SPEAKER WITHEM PRESIDING

SPEAKER WITHEM: One minute on your closing.

SENATOR AVERY: I don't. I...it's...it's... there's a lot of other things in the process of hunting that make...

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Then you get just as much pleasure out of going to one of these shooting arcades and shooting at the little ducks that are not alive that go across and you shoot to knock them down. You get just as much pleasure out of that as shooting a live duck. Is that what you're telling me?

SENATOR AVERY: I would, yeah.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Mr. President, I would ask for a call of the House.

SPEAKER WITHEM: Question is shall the House go under call? All those in favor vote aye, opposed vote nay. Record, Mr. Clerk.

CLERK: 9 ayes, 0 nays to go under call, Mr. President.

SPEAKER WITHEM: The House is under call. Members, please return to the chamber. Members in the chamber, please remain in your seats, return to your seats, record your presence. Senator Bohlke, could you could check in, please. Senator