LB 429

Senator Crosby, who I neglected to address when I started, sorry, that this is what this committee would do and it no longer has anything to do with this State Fair appropriations for prizes.

SENATOR CROSBY: Thank you, Senator Wehrbein. Before we take up discussion of 429, I'd like to call the Legislature's attention to the north balcony where Senator Hudkins has 24 fourth graders as her guests today. They're from Cedar Bluffs, Nebraska, and their teacher is with them. Would you all stand up and be welcomed by your Legislature. Thank you for being here. For discussion on the committee amendments, Senator Bernard-Stevens.

SENATOR BERNARD-STEVENS: Thank you, Madam President, members of the body. Senator Wehrbein, it's not a question you have to answer, maybe just nod of the head, but if for some reason the committee amendments were not agreed to, we would then be on the...on the original green copy, would we not?

SENATOR WEHRBEIN: Right.

SENATOR BERNARD-STEVENS: Senator Cudaback, would you yield to a question?

SENATOR CROSBY: Senator Cudaback.

SENATOR CUDABACK: Yes, sir.

SENATOR BERNARD-STEVENS: Just in case for some unknown reason the committee amendment were not agreed to, this is a question on the bill. Yours dealt with Future Farmers of America, FFA. Is that correct?

SENATOR CUDABACK: Right.

SENATOR BERNARD-STEVENS: But they can't call themselves Future Farmers of America anymore, can they?

SENATOR CUDABACK: No, they cannot.

SENATOR BERNARD-STEVENS: And why is that and what do they call themselves now?

SENATOR CUDABACK: Well, it's F...it's FFA, and that was amended, Senator Bernard-Stevens, that was amended to read the
