state?

SENATOR WEHRBEIN: Well, yes.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Now Max...

SENATOR WEHRBEIN: I mean now you hear about those where...sure.

PRESIDENT ROBAK: One minute.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Maximus has said that they would give...they would reduce the amount of money they're going to get the state dollar for dollar for any reduction in federal money that would come as a result of what Maximus did, but they didn't say anything about a penalty imposed on the state because of anything Maximus did. So if there's nothing in the contract about a penalty, Maximus would not have to pay the penalty or make that up, would they?

SENATOR WEHRBEIN: I guess not, if I follow you right.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Okay, I was just curious, because I want you all to pay attention to that contract, but on this thing that Senator Wehrbein is talking about I think he's done a pretty good snow job so I'm going to support him.

PRESIDENT ROBAK: Thank you, Senator Chambers. Senator Robinson.

SENATOR ROBINSON: Madam President, members of the body, Senator Wehrbein, I'm not going to talk to you about that word, I don't know what that word, begins with "M" but it's going to be...I'll talk to you about something else.

SENATOR WEHRBEIN: All right.

SENATOR ROBINSON: The forfeiture of retirement funds is, now this is for people that did not meet the qualifications to retire now. Is that a income tax rate paid or...

SENATOR WEHRBEIN: Monies deducted...

PRESIDENT ROBAK: Senator Wehrbein.

SENATOR WEHRBEIN: Money, Senator Robinson, the money, they are
