PRESIDENT ROBAK: Thank you, Senator Chambers. Senator Hall.

SENATOR HALL: Madam President, I rise in support of Senator Chambers' amendment.

PRESIDENT ROBAK: Thank you, Senator Hall. Is there any further discussion? Senator Wehrbein.

SENATOR WEHRBEIN: Senator Chambers, may I ask you a question?

PRESIDENT ROBAK: Senator Chambers.

SENATOR WEHRBEIN: How much effect...

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Yes.

SENATOR WEHRBEIN: ...does that have on you individually?

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Would you ask me...would you ask that again, Senator.

SENATOR WEHRBEIN: How much does this amendment have on you or I or all of us together?

SENATOR CHAMBERS: None whatsoever.

SENATOR WEHRBEIN: What does it do? I didn't understand it then. Oh, that's right, it doesn't have...what would it do if it wasn't for the constitution? That's the question I ought to ask.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Well, that's the kind of question which I can't answer because I cannot conceive of doing something outside the constitution.

SENATOR WEHRBEIN: (Laugh) I just didn't catch all the numbers and so I wanted to make...

SENATOR CHAMBERS: I can read the numbers again. I'll do that. One million, two hundred sixty-five thousand, nine hundred sixty-four.

SENATOR WEHRBEIN: So that's twen...that's double.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Or maybe I'm giving a hint on the Powerball.
