SENATOR ROBINSON: Yeah.

SENATOR KRISTENSEN: ...that if someone refuses.

SENATOR ROBINSON: Okay, let...now we have a legal record, is that the correct term, in Omaha? Is that the correct term for...

SENATOR KRISTENSEN: Well, I don't know the exact term. It's either...I think it's called the Daily Record or...

SENATOR ROBINSON: Daily Record. Okay.

SENATOR KRISTENSEN: ...some type of record, yes.

SENATOR ROBINSON: Now do we have that in Lincoln also?

SENATOR KRISTENSEN: Yes, I believe so.

SENATOR ROBINSON: Okay. Why couldn't we have it...why couldn't we have a daily, if we wanted to, just have a Daily Record for 20 counties?

SENATOR KRISTENSEN: Well, Senator, you need...you've got to have, and it talks about legal newspapers within the county, we'd have to change other statutes because there's a definition of what a legal publication is for a county. It's got a minimum number of circulation for a period of time,...

SENATOR ROBINSON: Yeah.

SENATOR KRISTENSEN: ..I believe a year.

SENATOR ROBINSON: Yeah. And I'm not...but these...

SENATOR KRISTENSEN: Could you change those...

SENATOR ROBINSON: ..these questions came to my mind and...

SENATOR KRISTENSEN: Right. Could you change those laws? Yes, you probably could...

SENATOR ROBINSON: Yeah.

SENATOR KRISTENSEN: ..change those laws but that's...that's
