SPEAKER WITHEM: One minute.

SENATOR BERNARD-STEVENS: ...because if you don't do it and you do it in the way that it is now, you're actually going to have, and I shudder to think what would happen. I think the world as we know it would probably tremble somewhere. You actually will have an entire year where you're going to have Foster Care Review Board and Social Services working together on each of the cases hand-in-hand. I don't know if the world can take that, I don't know if they would be able to take the strain of it. There may be...we may...I assume we're going to have to have more on counselors to be hired to handle the tremendous stress that that is going to...and it's...the people will be taking that stress home to their families, and the children of those families, there's the potential for abuse, it could be an ugly, ugly thing. So I'm sensing that we might want to do it all at once in the very beginning, and that may be an amendment we'll have to deal with later on. And Senator...Senator, Mr. Speaker, to close in the thirty seconds or ten I have left, Senator Hall,...

SPEAKER WITHEM: None.

SENATOR BERNARD-STEVENS: ...this is like...

SPEAKER WITHEM: Time.

SENATOR BERNARD-STEVENS: ...the House of Representatives where there's nobody there, but we're still all talking.

SPEAKER WITHEM: Senator Schimek.

SENATOR SCHIMEK: Thank you, Mr. President, members of the body. I would like to thank Senator Hall for offering this amendment which gives us further opportunity to talk about Section 1 of this bill, which certainly isn't the only section that we need to talk about, but I think we need to talk about it enough that we understand that there are some problems with the bill. On...up on the desk I have an amendment which will add some words into Section 1 which will provide that the Director of the Foster Care Review Board will be responsible for selecting the employees to be transferred from a list provided by the Director of Social Services, with priority consideration being given to
