SENATOR SCHIMEK: Okay.

SENATOR AVERY: ...will have three boards to oversee, and then the boards will actually do the review. The staff person provides the information...

SENATOR CROSBY PRESIDING

SENATOR CROSBY: One minute.

SENATOR AVERY: ...that they need in their review process.

SENATOR SCHIMEK: Okay. We're not going to have time to pursue all the questions that I have, but if each board will have...or each employee will have 3 boards to oversee and we've got 26 boards, we're talking about approximately 8 employees, right, 8 or 9 employees...

SENATOR AVERY: Right, but you...

SENATOR SCHIMEK: ...to oversee those boards.

SENATOR AVERY: Okay.

SENATOR SCHIMEK: Is that right?

SENATOR AVERY: Well, yeah, and I'm...I'm...well, I think they're supposed to be.... We'll have to probably need at least one supervisor that will oversee individuals in this process.

SENATOR SCHIMEK: Okay.

SENATOR AVERY: So there's going to be the supervisor with the transfer of the employees. One...one will potentially be a leader, I don't know how the process will go, but say one is going to be a supervisor, and then the others will each have boards under them.

SENATOR SCHIMEK: Okay.

SENATOR CROSBY: Time. Thank you, Senator Schimek. Senator Wesely, on the Hall amendment.

SENATOR WESELY: Thank you, Madam President, members. The Hall amendments affords a chance again to discuss a bit about the
