

look there on the...you'll see a number five and it says on page 6, line 2, after the "the" insert...

SPEAKER WITHEM: One minute.

SENATOR KRISTENSEN: That language will read like this, just, it's in Section 11. Instead of the chief counsel shall, it's going to say the primary duties of the chief counsel shall be to provide direct legal services to indigent defendants, and we put that in black and white in as plain a terms as possible that that is their mission and that's their direction of what they should do. The administrative stuff, what little is left done in terms of office administration, is obviously going to be handled by secretaries and those sorts of things. Senator Bromm, if you need more time, I'll put my light on if you want to do...

SENATOR BROMM: Okay.

SENATOR KRISTENSEN: Is that all right?

SENATOR BROMM: Sure. To then go to the second part of that question and I...I agree with changing the primary duties of the chief counsel, there's going to be...still going to be preparation of a budget and disbursement of funds...

SPEAKER WITHEM: Time. Senator Abboud.

SENATOR ABOUD: Yes, Mr. President, I've really enjoyed listening to Senator Bromm discuss this topic. I haven't heard...well, I'm not going to go into it, but it seems like Senator Bromm hasn't talked much this year and I'm going to give him the opportunity by yielding the rest of my time.

SENATOR BROMM: Thank you, Senator Abboud. I never know when to take you seriously. I don't think I take that seriously, but thank you.

SENATOR KRISTENSEN: Senator Bernard-Stevens just came in, I could...

SENATOR BROMM: Senator Kristensen, there will be, if I'm not mistaken, in line...on the second subdivision under Section 11 of the E & R amendment, prepare a budget, and you're amending that, disburse funds, and then we have presenting an annual
