

checked in, we will take a roll call in regular order. Senator Bernard-Stevens, could you check in. Senator Bohlke, could you check in, please. Senator Lindsay, Senator Day, Senator Elmer. Call the roll, Mr. Clerk.

CLERK: (Roll call vote taken. See pages 2142-43 of the Legislative Journal.) 17 ayes, 17 nays, Mr. President, on the amendment.

SPEAKER WITHEM: The amendment is not adopted. The call is raised. Next amendment, Mr. Clerk.

CLERK: Back to Senator Vrtiska's amendment, Mr. President.

SPEAKER WITHEM: I'm sorry, you're correct. There's no further amendments to the Vrtiska amendment?

CLERK: No, sir, not at this time.

SPEAKER WITHEM: Senator Vrtiska...Senator Chambers, to discuss the Vrtiska amendment.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Senator Vrtiska, is our little wager on or not? (Laugh.) We were interrupted in our discussion by the nonsense that Senator Bromm put us on. Is it up?

SENATOR VRTISKA: Here's my penny. (Laughter.)

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Okay, thank you.

SPEAKER WITHEM: Any further discussion on the Vrtiska amendment? Senator Vrtiska, you're recognized to close on your amendment.

SENATOR VRTISKA: Yes, I'm ready to close, I'm ready to go to the mat. We...all I'm going to ask is that we have the house under call and a roll call vote in regular order. And I don't have only this penny, but Senator Chambers is going to give me $100, but we're going to go outside the Chamber to do it, because I don't think it's legal to gamble in here. So, thank you.

SPEAKER WITHEM: The question is, shall the house go under call? All those in favor vote aye, all opposed vote nay. Record.
