

the third time you've brought this amendment. I stopped it last week because you wanted to substitute it for some amendment, but you keep calling it 1985 but it's different now, is that right Senator Avery?

PRESIDENT ROBAK: Senator Avery.

SENATOR CROSBY: It's still the same? When you first started talking...

SENATOR AVERY: No.

SENATOR CROSBY: ...you said this is 1985, but it's different, it isn't, it is...

SENATOR AVERY: No, this is...

SENATOR CROSBY: ...the same?

SENATOR AVERY: ...the other amendments were a different number.

SENATOR CROSBY: Well, how...

SENATOR AVERY: The percentages...what I've come up with, I've changed the percentages in terms of the amount of dollars, that they would still get an increase.

SENATOR CROSBY: What is the amount of money actually, the total amount of dollars that you want to take out? I haven't seen anything in writing this morning.

SENATOR AVERY: Well, it was passed out.

SENATOR CROSBY: When?

SENATOR AVERY: The...

SENATOR CROSBY: I don't have it.

SENATOR AVERY: Well, I can get you an additional copy.

SENATOR CROSBY: Well, at any rate, you're using up my time. I would like to see the total amount of money even though I'm going to vote against it because we've got to get this nebulous idea of how we can cut the budget by beating up the university
