ask Senator Wehrbein a question, if I may.

SENATOR HALL: Senator Wehrbein, if you'd respond.

SENATOR WEHRBEIN: Yes.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Senator Wehrbein, first of all, let me ask Senator Bernard-Stevens, so that I won't misstate what he said. In your proposal, you said any money that was saved or not spent would go into which fund?

SENATOR BERNARD-STEVENS: Cash Reserve Fund.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Thank you. Senator Wehrbein, did you hear that?

SENATOR WEHRBEIN: Yes.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Now, is that where $20 million of hopeful Maximus money is reposing right now?

SENATOR WEHRBEIN: Yes, well, proposing to propose, yes.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: And it needs some...

SENATOR WEHRBEIN: Repose.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: ...company.

SENATOR WEHRBEIN: It is proposing to repose there, yes.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Right. Because right now nothing is there for Maximus, is it?

SENATOR HALL: One minute.

SENATOR WEHRBEIN: Well, since we haven't gotten clear through the bill, that's right.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: And since they have only gotten $6 million...well, I guess $7 million so far.

SENATOR WEHRBEIN: Six point nine, yes.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: How can we make $7 million into $30 million
