

looking for those additional five offices.

SENATOR KRISTENSEN: Is there any other long-range plan or discussions that you're aware of for utilizing some other space? I mean, in other words, the Governor going over and taking some of PRO, those sorts of things. I guess the body probably wants or would like some idea of where we're heading for direction.

SENATOR HALL: Senator Kristensen, I think you raise a good point, you ask the right questions. The problem is that the...when...

SENATOR KRISTENSEN: Is the problem if we tell them...

SENATOR HALL: ...what's long-range, and we can't get them to sit down...

SENATOR KRISTENSEN: Yeah.

SENATOR HALL: ...and talk to any great degree. And this is not directed at any individuals. If there's no reason to move, if nobody is pushing the envelope it doesn't open. And at this point I'm pushing the envelope. And I don't know. I'm more than willing to work with every constitutional office that's out there to ensure that they're taken care of. But I stand here and say the Legislature needs five additional offices and I'm tired of being told, just wait until June, just wait until July, just wait until next session, just wait until we get space across the street or we move some people out. No more, I'm not willing to wait. Now if the body chooses to reject this amendment then I've been told how to handle the situation. But I'm just really kind of beside myself on this issue and I think the members deserve to have equal space or as equal as possible based on the responsibilities and that's why I bring the amendment.

SENATOR KRISTENSEN: I suppose the (inaudible)...

SPEAKER WIITHAM: One minute.

SENATOR KRISTENSEN: ...is that if we start to determine and point who we may go after, they start to begin a defense mechanism and it becomes a much more difficult task. I guess what I'm just...again, I support the concept of what we're doing. My only fear is that we begin a huge internal war that
