him and the Colonel, administration came out and conducted meetings throughout the state and had contact with him at those situations, had contact with him out here at the Training Center...

PRESIDENT ROBAK: One minute.

SENATOR SCHMITT: ...during training programs.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: And those are structured, formal settings where he is there to do a specific thing that is programmed in advance or planned in advance. Isn't that true?

SENATOR SCHMITT: I believe so. You could say that, yes.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: You didn't work on the road with him, did you?

SENATOR SCHMITT: No, not as an individual officer, no.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: You didn't socialize with him?

SENATOR SCHMITT: No.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: You don't know whether there were any complaints against him?

SENATOR SCHMITT: As far as I know, within the organization, and usually you knew if there was complaints if...about an officer or someone in administration, you heard about it, and I never did hear anything bad about him when he was on the patrol.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Have you heard anything bad about any command officer with the patrol?

SENATOR SCHMITT: Yes, I have.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Have you heard anything bad about this man in terms of complaints from the public? Or do you know whether any such complaints were ever filed?

SENATOR SCHMITT: I have not heard of any, no.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: So we are talking in a philosophical abstract way this morning, more or less,...
