SENATOR BOHLKE: Well, I think it has to be individual because there are individual circumstances.

SENATOR BOHLKE: Correct.

SENATOR ROBINSON: Okay, '96-97, that's the flat year according to your amendment and Senator Bromm's, right?

SENATOR BOHLKE: Correct.

SENATOR ROBINSON: And Senator Bernard-Stevens' is the 5 percent. Okay, now the next year, is it the school growth or it's the 4.5 to 5 percent?

SENATOR BOHLKE: It is that allowable growth rate that...

SENATOR ROBINSON: Right.

SENATOR BOHLKE: ...we discussed earlier.

SENATOR ROBINSON: Now as far as property tax goes, that could be...that could be a lot more than 4.5 to 5, couldn't it?

SENATOR BOHLKE: The allowable growth rate?

SENATOR ROBINSON: Yeah.

SENATOR BOHLKE: Well, we set that.

SENATOR ROBINSON: I know, but it is on budget though, it is not on property tax.

SENATOR BOHLKE: Right.
